

COLORADO INDEPENDENT RECORDING ARTISTS
"THE CODY SISTERS BAND"
TO PERFORM AT
The Broadbent Theatre

Colorado based recording artists, The Cody Sisters Band, will be performing at The Broadbent Theatre, located at Snarford Road, Wickenby, Lincoln LN3 5AW, on Thursday, June 21st at 7:30. This will be the 6th of 15 tour dates in England and Wales that these US based artists will be playing to support the UK release of their latest album, "White on the Blue".

At only 13 and 15, the extremely accomplished "The Cody Sisters Band" has established themselves as a formidable force in the US for fans of acoustic, folk, and bluegrass music. Now, bringing their love for the art to the UK, their lyrics fall from the clouds like a soft warm rain and in an instant thunder down like a Colorado storm. Audiences are left emotional, inspired, and exhilarated by their soft sister harmonies and are reminded of a simpler, slower time. Then, as the show builds, the award winning sound of their guitars, mandolins, banjos, and bass will fill the hall with joy and excitement leaving the audience swimming in a river of beautiful sound.

Seeing the Cody Sisters Band is an experience. These young women (13 and 15) and their bass player fuse so many different influences, and genres it's often difficult to define them. The experience blends Americana, Gypsy Jazz, Folk, and Modern Bluegrass together in a completely unique sound that stays with audiences for weeks to come. Their original songs and sound always leaves a lasting impression.

They have established themselves as one of the true acoustic treasures in the Colorado Bluegrass and Folk Circuit today. Their beautiful harmonies, incredible instrumentation, and original lyrics coupled with their stories make them one of the most sought after bands in the market.

After wrapping their 2017 CD project "Strings" to critical acclaim, they will be releasing their brand new 2018 album "White on the Blue" to UK Audiences during this tour.

Tickets for this show can be purchased at <http://broadbenttheatre.org/> for a price of 10£ for adults and 9£ for concessions or by dialing The Broadbent at 0300 400 0101 for more information.
